LR 16.7 ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PLAN

A. Purpose. The court adopts this Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") Program to provide alternative processes for the resolution of civil disputes with resultant savings in time and costs to litigants and to the court, but without sacrificing the quality of justice or the right of the litigants to a full trial in the event of an impasse following ADR. The program and the procedures established thereunder are intended to comply fully with the Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 1998. 28 U.S.C. § 651 et.seq.

B. Description of ADR Program. At various stages in the litigation of a civil case, litigants and their counsel are required to consider whether utilization of an alternative dispute resolution process is desirable or appropriate in their particular case. See LR 16.7D, below. A judge may authorize use of an ADR process that is facilitated by individuals or programs not connected with the court or, alternatively, the judge may authorize utilization of an ADR process offered through the court's court-annexed ADR program.

(1) General Referrals. A judge may in his or her discretion refer any civil case to a non-binding ADR process, e.g. early neutral evaluation, mediation, or non-binding arbitration. Upon the consent of the parties, the judge may refer any civil case to binding arbitration, binding summary jury trial or bench trial, or other binding ADR process.

The timing of the referral to a binding or non-binding ADR process under this section is within the discretion of the referring judge.

(2) Court-annexed ADR Program. Alternatively, through its court-annexed program, the court offers civil litigants access to the ADR process of mediation. The assigned judge may refer a case to the court's ADR program or may grant the request of counsel that the case be referred to the program. Cases involving administrative appeals, petitions for habeas corpus, and cases in which one or more litigants is proceeding pro se are not, however, eligible for participation in the court-annexed ADR program.

The court has designated an ADR administrator to whom responsibility for administering the court's program has been assigned. This responsibility includes maintaining at all times adequate lists of trained and certified mediators.

(3) Compromise Negotiations. Every ADR process conducted in a civil case filed in this court will be treated as a compromise negotiation for purposes of the Federal Rules of Evidence and the Georgia Rules of Evidence. No record will be made of the ADR proceedings. The ADR neutral in the particular case is disqualified from appearing as a witness, consultant, attorney, or expert in any pending or future action relating to that dispute.

(4) Stay of Proceedings. In the initial Order directing the litigants to an ADR process or to the court-annexed ADR program, the judge will have indicated whether the proceedings will or will not be stayed during the ADR process.

C. Definitions.

As used in this local rule:

(1) Mediation is a non-binding supervised process presided over by a qualified and neutral mediator.

(2) Early neutral evaluation ("ENE") is a non-binding supervised process where a neutral evaluator provides the litigants with an evaluation of the strengths and weaknesses of each party's case to the extent possible at an early stage, helps the parties focus on the issues, organizes an efficient discovery plan, identifies a plan for expeditious resolution of the case by dispositive motion or trial, and/or, if possible, settles all or part of the issues in the case.

(3) Arbitration is the submission of a dispute to a neutral third party or panel, which then renders a decision. Arbitration is an adjudicative process that requires each side to offer evidence and present argument, upon which the neutral or panel then decides the case.

D. Requirement to Consider ADR.

(1) Counsel for the litigants are required to discuss utilization of an ADR process at the Early Planning Conference (see LR 16.1). If counsel wish to participate in ADR, counsel shall immediately so notify the judge to whom the case is assigned in writing, specifying which ADR process is desired and whether they desire to participate in the court-annexed ADR plan or otherwise. If counsel decide against participation in an ADR process at this time, this decision must be reported in the Preliminary Planning Report (see LR 16.2).

(2) For cases not resolved sooner, counsel shall again consider participation in ADR at the required Conference After Discovery (see LR 16.3). The assigned judge must be notified immediately if counsel wish to participate in an ADR process.

(3) In any case in which all counsel do not support participation in ADR, individual counsel may provide the judge confidential notice, in writing, of that counsel's desire for ADR. The judge will then make a determination as to whether the case should be included in the ADR program.

E. Notification of Referral. The judge will notify the parties in writing when the judge has referred a case to an ADR process, specifying whether the referral is to the court-annexed program or otherwise.

F. Selection of ADR Neutral.

(1) General Referrals. For ADR processes conducted by others, the judge will appoint the ADR neutral. However, before making the appointment, the judge may direct that each party send the judge a list of the names of three (3) ADR neutrals after which the judge will then select the ADR neutral. If the parties have mutually agreed on one of the ADR neutrals listed in their submissions, the parties may so notify the judge, who in his or her discretion, may consider their recommendations. The judge will provide the parties written notice of the identity of the ADR neutral selected and will send a copy of the appointment to the ADR neutral.

(2) Referrals to Court-Annexed Program. In cases referred to the court-annexed program, the ADR administrator shall appoint the neutral after providing counsel with the names of three (3) or more proposed neutrals and considering any objections counsel may have to the proposed neutrals.

(3) Judicial Contact. Once a neutral has been appointed, counsel are not allowed to have any oral or written communication regarding the ADR process with the judge to whom the case is assigned.

(4) ADR Conferences. Once appointed, the ADR neutral will arrange for a conference at a time within thirty (30) days from the date of the notice naming the ADR neutral, unless otherwise ordered by the judge.

G. Disqualification of ADR Neutrals. Any person selected as an ADR neutral may be disqualified for bias or prejudice as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 144 and shall be disqualified in any case in which such action would be required by a justice, judge, or magistrate judge governed by 28 U.S.C. § 455.

H. Required Submissions Before ADR Conferences.

At least five (5) business days before the ADR conference, the parties must submit to the ADR neutral:

- (a) copies of relevant pleadings and motions;
- (b) a short memorandum which identifies the persons, in addition to counsel, who will attend the ADR conference and identifies the individuals connected to the opposing litigant whose presence would be helpful to a productive session. The ADR neutral shall determine whether any person so identified should be requested to attend;
- (c) a written statement, not to exceed ten (10) pages double spaced, which summarizes the legal and factual position of each party respecting the issues in dispute. For ENE conferences, each party also shall prepare a written evaluation statement; any written evaluation statements for an ENE conference shall not be submitted to the judge;
- (d) such other relevant materials as the ADR neutral requests.

At the conference, counsel shall be prepared to respond fully and candidly in a private caucus to questions by the ADR neutral regarding the estimated costs to counsel's clients of any remaining discovery and of litigating the case through trial, including attorneys' fees and expert witnesses, and regarding the claimed damages, including the method of computation.

I. Procedure Applicable to all ADR Conferences.

(1) Attendance. The attorney primarily responsible for each litigant's case must personally attend the ADR conference and must be prepared and authorized to discuss all relevant issues, including settlement unless excused by the neutral. The litigants must also be present unless excused by court order. When a litigant is other than an individual, an authorized representative of such litigant, with full authority to settle, must attend. When a litigant has insurance coverage for the claims in dispute, an authorized representative of the insurance company, with full authority to settle, must attend. Willful failure of a party to attend an ADR conference will be reported to the administrator by the ADR neutral, who will then report the absence to a judicial officer for possible imposition of sanctions.

ADR conferences will be private. Persons other than the litigants and their representatives may attend only with the permission of all litigants and with the consent of the ADR neutral.

(2) Time and Place. The ADR neutral will fix the date and length of each ADR conference. The conference will be held at a location agreeable to the ADR neutral and the litigants or as otherwise directed by the judge.

(3) Informal Procedure. The ADR conference, and such additional conferences as the ADR neutral deems appropriate, will be informal.

(4) Private Caucuses; Confidentiality. The ADR neutral may hold separate, private caucuses with any litigant or counsel. The ADR neutral must not disclose to any other party any information disclosed by a litigant during a caucus which that party indicates to the ADR neutral should be treated as confidential. It will be the responsibility of each party to clearly indicate to the ADR neutral which information is and is not deemed confidential by that litigant.

(5) Statements; Confidentiality. The ADR neutral shall have the litigants and their attorneys sign a form agreeing that any statements made or presented during the ADR conference are confidential and may not be used as evidence in any subsequent administrative or judicial proceeding. The only exception shall be if the judge requests a report from the EN evaluator in the judge's order appointing the EN evaluator.

J. Procedure at Mediation Conference.

(1) Procedure. The mediator will conduct the process in order to assist the litigants in arriving at a settlement of all or some of the issues involved in the case. The mediator will determine how to structure the mediation conference.

(2) Settlement Proposal by Mediator. If after reasonable efforts the litigants fail to develop settlement terms or upon request of the litigants, the mediator may submit to the litigants a final settlement proposal that the mediator believes to be fair. The litigants carefully will consider such proposal and, at the request of the mediator, will discuss the proposal with the mediator. The mediator may comment on questions of law at any appropriate time.

(3) Conclusion of the Mediation Process. The mediator will conclude the process when:

- (a) a settlement is reached by the litigants; or
- (b) the mediator concludes, and informs the litigants, that further efforts would not be useful.

K. Procedure at ENE Conference.

(1) Procedure. The evaluator will conduct the process in order to help the parties focus the issues and work efficiently and expeditiously to make the case ready for trial or settlement. The evaluator will determine how to structure the evaluation conference.

(2) Scope. At the initial conference, and at any additional conferences the evaluator deems appropriate, the evaluator may:

(a) permit each litigant to make a brief oral presentation of its position through counsel or otherwise;

(b) help the litigants to identify areas of agreement and, if feasible, enter stipulations;

(c) determine whether the litigants wish to negotiate, with or without the evaluator's assistance, before evaluation of the case;

(d) help the litigants identify issues and assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of the litigants' positions;

(e) help the litigants to agree on a plan for exchanging information and conducting discovery which will enable them to prepare expeditiously for the resolution of the case by trial, settlement, or dispositive motion;

(f) help the litigants to assess litigation costs realistically;

(g) determine whether one or more additional conferences would assist in the settlement or case development process and, if so, schedule the conference and direct the litigants to prepare and submit any additional written materials needed for the conference;

(h) at the final conference (which may be the initial conference), give an evaluation of the strengths and weaknesses of each litigant's case and of the probable outcome if the case is tried, including, if feasible, the dollar value of each claim and counterclaim;

(i) advise the litigants, if appropriate, about the availability of ADR processes that might assist in resolving the dispute;

(j) act as a mediator or otherwise assist in settlement negotiations either before or after presenting the evaluation called for in Section (2)(h) above; and

(k) assist the litigants in narrowing the issues in the case, and, if requested by the judge, the evaluator may send a report to the judge on whether a preliminary pretrial conference should be held with the judge under Rule 16 to further narrow the issues in the case.

L. Report to the Court. Within five (5) days following any ADR process, the ADR neutral will file a Report indicating the date and length of the ADR process and whether all required litigants were present. If a settlement agreement is reached, the Report will indicate that a settlement is reached and the date by which the final settlement agreement will be executed and the dismissal filed. If no settlement agreement is reached, the ADR neutral will report in writing that the ADR process was held, that no agreements were reached, and the recommendations, if any, of the ADR neutral as to the future processing of the case. The written Report shall be prepared by the ADR neutral (or at the ADR neutral's request, one of the litigants), shall be signed by the litigants, and shall be delivered to the ADR administrator.

If a settlement is reached, the ADR neutral, or one of the litigants at the ADR neutral's request, shall prepare a written document reflecting briefly the terms of the settlement agreement which shall be signed by the litigants and retained by the ADR neutral and the litigants.

M. Fee.

(1) General. Litigants are encouraged to agree upon compensation of the ADR neutral at or before the first conference. Relevant factors to be considered in determining an appropriate fee include the complexity of the litigation, the degree of skill necessary to facilitate the dispute, and the ability of the litigants to pay.

(2) Court Annexed Program. Neutrals in the court-annexed ADR program are required to list their fee schedules as part of their applications. The court will review fee schedules for reasonableness. Daily rather than hourly rates are encouraged. Any issues with regard to fees will be resolved by the ADR administrator.

(3) Before being placed on the roster for the court's annexed ADR program, a neutral must agree to provide pro bono hours and hours at reduced rates to defray ADR costs for parties with limited ability to pay. The number of hours required will be determined by the judges.

IV. PARTIES

LR 23: CLASS ACTIONS

LR 23.1 CLASS ACTIONS

A. Complaint, Counterclaims, Crossclaims

(1) Caption. For all class actions the complaint shall bear next to the style of the case the designation "Complaint - Class Action."

(2) Class Action Allegations. Under a separate heading titled "Class Action Allegations", the complaint shall provide the following information:

(a) The section of Fed.R.Civ.P. 23 which is claimed to authorize maintenance of suit by class action.

(b) The size (or approximate size) and definition of the alleged class.

(c) The basis of the named plaintiff's or plaintiffs' claim to be an adequate representative of the class or, if defendants, the basis of the named defendant's or defendants' claim to be an adequate representative of the class.

(d) The alleged questions of law and fact which are common among members of the class.

(e) The allegations necessary to satisfy the criteria of section (b)(1) or (b)(2) of Fed.R.Civ.P. 23 or to support the findings required by section (b)(3) of Fed.R.Civ.P. 23.

(f) For actions requiring a jurisdictional amount, the basis for determination of that amount.

The foregoing provisions shall apply, with appropriate adaptations, to any counterclaim or crossclaim alleged to be brought for or against a class.

B. Class Certification. The plaintiff shall move within ninety (90) days after the complaint is filed for a determination under Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(c)(1) as to whether the suit may be maintained as a class action. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any class action brought pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, or a class action in which one or more defendants have filed a motion to dismiss pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 12 in lieu of an answer to the complaint, or a class action in which one or more parties file a motion for coordination and/or consolidation of multiple actions before the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, the plaintiff shall move for a determination under Fed.R.Civ.P. 23(c)(1) within thirty (30) days after all defendants have filed an answer to the complaint. The court may extend the time upon a showing of good cause.

C. Communications with Actual or Putative Class Members.

(1) Purpose. The administration of justice often requires that limited restrictions be placed on counsel and parties in cases in which class certification is sought or has been granted. In class actions where a putative class member is permitted to elect not to participate in the class action, there is an inherent risk that a class member's decision may, in the absence of court regulation of communications regarding the class action, not be based on a complete and balanced presentation of the relevant facts. Special management of class actions is often necessary to protect the interests of both formal parties and absent class members.

(2) Restrictions on Communications. When class certification is sought in a case, all parties and/or their counsel are required to confer jointly to determine whether proper management of the case or the interests of putative class members require the entry of an order limiting either the parties or counsel in communications with putative class members. The conference shall occur as soon as practicable, but in no event later than twenty (20) days after the complaint is served. Within ten (10) days after the conference, counsel shall submit to the court a joint statement of their collective or individual views as to whether an order should be entered limiting communications. If counsel agree no order is necessary, they shall so state in their report to the court. If counsel agree that an order limiting communications should be entered, they shall submit the proposed content of such order and the grounds justifying entry of same. If counsel cannot agree whether an order should be entered or what the content of such an order should be, they shall report this to the court and either submit stipulated facts for the court's consideration or request a hearing to present evidence on the issue. Based on the record before the court, an order limiting communications may be entered upon a finding that a failure to so limit communications would likely result in imminent and irreparable injury to one of the parties. Except as set forth in LR 23.1(c)(4)(a), neither the parties nor their counsel shall initiate communications with putative class members regarding the substance of the lawsuit until counsel presents the required report to the court and any necessary order is entered pursuant to the report.

(3) Restrictions Applicable to All Class Actions. In all cases where class certification is sought or granted, the following shall apply:

(a) All parties and counsel are forbidden to solicit fees and expenses or agreements to pay fees and expenses from prospective or actual class members who are not formal parties or who do not plan to become formal parties.

(b) All parties and counsel are forbidden to communicate with prospective or actual class members in a way which tends to misrepresent the status, purpose, and effects of the action or of any actual or potential court orders therein, which may create impressions tending without cause to reflect adversely on any party, any counsel, the court, or the administration of justice.

(4) Class Actions Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 ("Reform Act") provides for a notice to be published following the commencement of a securities class action. 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u-4(a)(3)(A)(i), 77z-1(a)(3)(A)(i). The court finds that certain practices in Reform Act class actions have the potential to harm the interests of class members and/or defendants and can interfere with the orderly administration of justice. For example, the court finds that numerous notices of the same litigation have been released, thereby creating the potential for confusion for potential class members and potential damage to the interests of shareholders and businesses. The court finds further that the measures adopted herein are reasonably necessary to protect the interests of class members, realize the goals of the Reform Act, and balance the rights of those who wish to prosecute a Reform Act class action or communicate about it.

(i) Contents of the Notice. Consistent with the provisions of 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u-4(a)(3)(A)(i) , 77z-1(a)(3)(A)(i), following the filing of any Reform Act class action in this District, each law firm on a complaint may choose to publish a notice. Such notice shall have as its headline “Notice of Filing Securities Class Action Against [Defendant or Defendants]” and shall provide the following information as required by the Reform Act:

- 1) the pendency of the action;
- 2) the claims asserted therein;
- 3) the purported class period;
- 4) that, not later than sixty (60) days after the date on which the first notice is published, any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as lead plaintiff of the purported class; and
- 5) contact information for the law firm issuing the notice, including the name of a contact person who is designated to discuss the lawsuit with putative class members, an address, a telephone number, and a website and e-mail address, if applicable. However, the notice shall not contain a promotional statement for any law firm.

(ii) Type of Publication. The one notice pursuant to subsection (i) shall be published in a widely circulated national business-oriented publication or wire service.

(iii) Only One Notice Per Law Firm. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, there shall be only one notice per law firm regardless of the number of complaints filed in this Court arising out of the same or similar set of facts or circumstances. No attorney seeking to represent the putative class shall initiate any other communication with putative class members unless approved in advance by the court. Such court approval will be granted if the communication is deemed by this Court to be reasonably necessary to achieve the purposes of the Reform Act. This rule does not affect the rights or obligations of defendants to give notice of the pendency of the suit, nor does it preclude counsel for either party from contacting class members whom they believe to be fact witnesses or with whom they have an attorney-client relationship.

(b) Motion for Appointment of Lead Plaintiff. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(i) and (v) , 77z-1(a)(3)(B)(i) and (v), the court shall consider any motion for appointment of lead plaintiff and lead plaintiff's counsel in a Reform Act class action within ninety (90) days after the date on which the first Notice is published pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u-4(a)(3)(A)(i), 77z-1(a)(3)(A)(i), and this rule or as soon thereafter as practicable. Consistent with the purpose and terms of the Reform Act, in considering and ruling upon such a motion as to appointment of lead plaintiff and lead counsel, the court will consider, among other relevant factors, the following:

(i) the proposed lead plaintiff's financial loss, recognizing that the presumption that the person with the largest financial interest in the relief sought is the most adequate lead plaintiff is rebuttable;

(ii) whether the proposed lead plaintiff's counsel has complied with the Local Rules of this Court;

(iii) whether the proposed lead plaintiff's counsel promotes the efficient conduct of the litigation; and

(iv) the relevant experience of the proposed lead plaintiff's counsel.

(c) Certification of Proposed Lead Counsel. Any law firm seeking to be appointed lead counsel pursuant to the Reform Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(v), 77z-1(a)(3)(B)(v), shall submit with its motion papers a sworn certification stating that with regard to the case at bar, such law firm:

(i) has issued or caused to be issued no more than one notice to putative class members (except as authorized by LR 23.1(C)(4)(a)(iii));

(ii) has complied with the Local Rules of this Court; and

(iii) has complied with applicable State Bar of Georgia ethical rules.

(5) Ethical and Other Obligations Not Affected. The obligations and prohibitions of the foregoing rule are not exclusive. All other ethical, legal, and equitable obligations to which counsel and/or parties are subject are not affected by this rule.

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

LR 26: GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISCOVERY; DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

LR 26.1 INITIAL AND EXPERT DISCLOSURES

A. Applicability. The parties to civil actions shall make the initial disclosures required by Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(1) at or within thirty (30) days after the appearance of a defendant by answer or motion. Expert disclosures shall be made as required by Fed.R.Civ.P.26(a)(2) and by LR 26.2(C). Pretrial disclosures (Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3)) are addressed in LR 16.4, Consolidated Pretrial Order.

B. Procedures.

(1) Standard Form. The court has prepared a form, Initial Disclosures, which counsel shall be required to use. A copy of the form is included as Form I in Appendix B and copies of the form may be obtained by counsel at the public filing counter in each division. No modifications or deletions to the form shall be made without prior permission of the court. All disclosures must be answered fully in writing in compliance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26. See also Fed.R.Civ.P. 37 regarding failure to make disclosures.

(2) Multiple Parties. If there is more than one (1) plaintiff or more than one (1) defendant in the action, each plaintiff and each defendant must submit the disclosures separately unless a disclosure is the same for all plaintiffs or all defendants.

(3) Attorney's Signature Required. Initial Disclosures shall be certified as directed by Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(g)(1). Sanctions, if appropriate, will be imposed according to Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(g)(3) and 37(c).

(4) Removed Cases. For purposes of this rule, any time period stated to run from the appearance of a defendant will run from the date the removed case is filed in this court.

C. Supplementation and Amendment of Disclosures. The duties of a party to supplement and amend prior initial, expert or pretrial disclosure are set forth in Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(e).

LR 26.2 DISCOVERY PERIOD.

A. Commencement; Length. The discovery period shall commence thirty (30) days after the appearance of the first defendant by answer to the complaint, unless the parties mutually consent to begin earlier. Discovery proceedings must be initiated promptly so that discovery is initiated and completed (including the filing of answers and responses thereto) within the time limitations of the discovery track to which the case is assigned.

The discovery tracks established in this court are: (1) zero (0)-months discovery period; (2) four (4)-months discovery period; and (3) eight (8)-months discovery period. A chart showing the assignment of cases to a discovery track by filing category is contained in Appendix F.

B. Adjustments to Discovery Period. The court may, in its discretion, shorten the time for discovery. Motions requesting extensions of time for discovery must be made prior to expiration of the existing discovery period and will be granted only in exceptional cases where the circumstances on which the request is based did not exist or the attorney or attorneys could not have anticipated that such circumstances would arise at the time the Joint Preliminary Report and Discovery Plan was filed.

C. Expert Witnesses. Any party who desires to use the testimony of an expert witness shall designate the expert sufficiently early in the discovery period to permit the opposing party the opportunity to depose the expert and, if desired, to name its own expert witness sufficiently in advance of the close of discovery so that a similar discovery deposition of the second expert might also be conducted prior to the close of discovery.

Any party who does not comply with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph shall not be permitted to offer the testimony of the party's expert, unless expressly authorized by court order based upon a showing that the failure to comply was justified.

Any party objecting to an expert's testimony based upon Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharms., Inc., 509 U.S. 579, 113 S.Ct. 2786 (1993) shall file a motion no later than the date that the proposed pretrial order is submitted. Otherwise, such objections will be waived, unless expressly authorized by court order based upon a showing that the failure to comply was justified.

LR 26.3 SERVICE AND FILING OF DISCOVERY MATERIAL

A. Filing Not Generally Required. Interrogatories, requests for inspection, requests for admission, and answers and responses thereto shall be served upon other counsel or parties, but they shall not be routinely filed with the court. The party responsible for service of the discovery material shall, however, file a certificate with the clerk indicating the date of service. Counsel shall also retain the original discovery material and become its custodian. The original of all depositions upon oral examination shall be retained by the party taking the deposition.

B. Selective Filing Required for Motions, Trial and Appeal.

(1) The custodial party shall file with the clerk at the time of use at trial or with the filing of a motion those portions of depositions, interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission and answers or responses thereto which are used at trial or which are necessary to the motion.

(2) Where discovery materials not previously in the record are needed for appeal purposes, the court, upon application, may order or counsel may stipulate in writing that the necessary materials be filed with the clerk.

LR 30: DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION

LR 30.1 EXPERT WITNESSES

Limitations regarding the timing of expert depositions and listing of potential and expected expert witnesses at trial (see Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(2)), are set forth in LR 26.2C and LR 16.4B(18), respectively.

LR 37: FAILURE TO MAKE DISCLOSURES OR TO COOPERATE IN DISCOVERY; SANCTIONS

LR 37.1 MOTIONS TO COMPEL A DISCLOSURE OR DISCOVERY

A. Form. A motion to compel a disclosure under LR 26.1 or to compel a response to discovery conducted pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall:

(1) Include the certification of counsel with regard to the duty to confer required by Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(a)(2)(A)(B);

(2) Quote verbatim each disclosure, interrogatory, deposition question, request for designation of deponent, or request for inspection to which objection is taken;

(3) State the specific objection;

(4) State the grounds assigned for the objection (if not apparent from the objection); and

(5) Cite authority and include a discussion of the reasons assigned as supporting the motion.

The motion shall be arranged so that the objection, grounds, authority, and supporting reasons follow the verbatim statement of each specific disclosure, interrogatory, deposition question, request for designation of deponent, or request for inspection to which an objection is raised.

B. Time for Filing. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a motion to compel a disclosure or discovery must be filed within the time remaining prior to the close of discovery or, if longer, within ten (10) days after service of the disclosure or discovery response upon which the objection is based. The close of discovery is established by the expiration of the original or extended discovery period or by written notice of all counsel, filed with the court, indicating that discovery was completed earlier.

C. Procedures. Motions to compel are subject to the general motion requirements set forth in LR 7.1.

VI. TRIALS

Editor's Note: See also LR 83.1, Attorneys: Admission to Practice before the Court.

LR 39: TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

LR 39.1 PLEADINGS AND EXHIBITS; APPEAL RECORDS; CLOSED FILES

Refer to LR 79.1

LR 39.2 TAXATION OF COSTS IN LATE-SETTLING CASES

A. Settlement Before Trial. Whenever a civil action scheduled for jury trial is settled or otherwise disposed of in advance of the actual trial, then, except for good cause shown, juror costs for one day shall be assessed equally against the parties and their counsel or otherwise assessed or relieved as directed by the court. Juror costs include attendance fees, per diem, mileage, and parking. No juror costs will be assessed if notice of settlement or other disposition of the case is given to both the courtroom deputy of the judge to whom the case is assigned and to the Jury Section of the clerk's office one full business day prior to the scheduled trial date.

B. Settlement Before Verdict. Except upon a showing of good cause, the court shall assess the juror costs equally against the parties and their counsel whenever a civil action proceeding as a jury trial is settled at trial in advance of the verdict. The judge may, in the discretion of the judge, direct that the juror costs be relieved or that they be assessed other than equally among the parties and their counsel.

LR 39.3 ATTORNEYS: AT TRIAL

A. Presence During Trial.

(1) Presence Required. It shall be the duty of counsel in all jury cases to be present at all portions and phases of trial including the time during which the jury is considering its verdict, unless excused by the court. The court and court officials shall have no duty to telephone or notify counsel after the jury has retired to consider the verdict.

(2) Presumptions. Unless the contrary affirmatively appears of record, it will be presumed that the parties and their counsel were present at all stages of the trial or, if absent, that their absence was voluntary and constituted a waiver of their presence.

B. Limitations on Participation.

(1) Witness Examination. Unless the court permits otherwise, only one (1) attorney on each side shall examine or cross-examine a witness.

(2) Argument to the Jury.

(a) Unless the court permits otherwise, the merits of an action or proceeding shall not be argued by more than two (2) attorneys on each side.

(b) The party bearing the burden of persuasion at trial shall be entitled to open and close the arguments to the jury.

(c) If the party waives the party's right to make an opening argument, the party's rebuttal argument is limited to those matters argued by the opposing party in that party's closing argument.

(3) Attorney as Witness. In this court, an attorney for a party who is examined as a witness in an action or proceeding and who gives testimony on the merits shall not be permitted to argue the merits of the case or proceeding, either to the court or to the jury, except with the permission of the court.

LR 39.4 RESTRICTIONS ON MEDIA AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION

Refer to LR 83.4

LR 39.5 CONTINUANCES

A. Generally. A continuance of any trial, pretrial conference, or other hearing will be granted only on the basis of exceptional circumstances. No such continuance will be granted on stipulation of counsel alone, but shall require an order of the court.

B. Absence of Witnesses. Motions for continuance on account of the absence of any witness must show the steps which have been taken to secure the attendance of the witness and must reveal the nature of the witness' testimony. The motion must also state the time at which the witness will be available and, unless waived, must include a certificate of a doctor when illness of the witness is claimed. The stipulation of the adversary as to the witness' testimony shall be sufficient reason for denial of the motion for continuance.

LR 40: ASSIGNMENT OF CASES FOR TRIAL

LR 40.1 TRIAL CALENDAR

A case shall be presumed ready for trial on the first calendar after the pretrial order is filed unless another time is specifically set by the court.

LR 41: DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS

LR 41.1 VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

Orders of voluntary dismissal under Fed.R.Civ.P. 41(a)(1) may be obtained from the clerk who is authorized to grant, sign, and enter such orders of dismissal.

LR 41.2 DISMISSAL WITHOUT PREJUDICE

A. A. Dismissal Authorized. The court may, with or without notice to the parties, dismiss a civil case for want of prosecution if:

All witnesses called to testify will be subject to the control of counsel who subpoenaed them (or secured their voluntary appearance). Rather, the witness may be excused unless other counsel requests at that time that the witness not be excused. If the witness is not excused, the witness must remain within the environs of the courtroom for the remainder of the court session on that day. Attendance on subsequent dates is not required unless the party desiring the witness' attendance serves a subpoena upon the witness. Payment of a witness' per diem and other covered expenses is the responsibility of counsel who on that date has the witness under subpoena.

The determination of whether the district judge or counsel will propound general voir dire questions is a matter of courtroom policy which shall be established by each judge.

LR 49: SPECIAL VERDICTS AND INTERROGATORIES

LR 49.1 SPECIAL VERDICTS

LR 54.2 ATTORNEY'S FEES

A. Procedure for Determination. If a final judgment, including a judgment made final under Fed.R.Civ.P. 54(b), does not determine (or establish other procedures for determining) the amount of attorney's fees which are authorized by federal statute to be awarded by the court to or on behalf of a prevailing party or which may be sought under the equitable or inherent powers of the court, the following procedures shall apply:

(1) The award of such fees (and expenses incident thereto not ordinarily allowable as taxable costs) shall be requested by special written motion addressed to the court and shall not be included in a cost bill, in a motion for taxation or retaxation of costs, or in a motion under Fed.R.Civ.P. 50(b), 52(b), or 59.

(2) The motion shall specify the judgment and the statute or other grounds on the basis of which entitlement to the award is claimed and shall state the amount (or provide a fair estimate of the approximate amount) of the fees and expenses sought. Within thirty (30) days (or such other period as the court may prescribe) after filing the motion, the movant shall file and serve a detailed specification and itemization of the requested award, with appropriate affidavits and other supporting documentation.

(3) Hearings on the motion shall be conducted by the court in accordance with Fed.R.Civ.P. 43(e) and Fed.R.Civ.P. 78 and in accordance with applicable statutory and decisional standards.

(4) Pendency of a motion filed under this rule does not extend the time for appealing from, or for filing a motion under Fed.Rs.Crim.P. 50(b), 52(b), or 59 directed to the judgment giving rise to the claim for attorney's fees. The court may, however, take the motion into consideration in ruling upon a motion for extension of time for appealing filed under Fed.R.App.P. 4(a)(5).

In accordance with LR 7.1C, the parties shall not be permitted to file supplemental briefs and materials, with the exception of a reply by the movant, except upon order of the court.

B. Form of Motion.

(1) The movant for summary judgment shall attach to the motion a separate and concise statement of the material facts to which the movant contends there is no genuine issue to be tried. Each material fact shall be numbered separately. Statements in the form of issues or legal conclusions (rather than material facts) will not be considered by the court. Affidavits and the introductory portions of briefs do not constitute a statement of material facts.

(2) The respondent to a motion for summary judgment shall attach to the response a separate and concise statement of material facts, numbered separately, to which the respondent contends there exists a genuine issue to be tried. Response should be made to each of the movant's numbered material facts. All material facts contained in the moving party's statement which are not specifically controverted by the respondent in respondent's statement shall be deemed to have been admitted. The response that a party has insufficient knowledge to admit or deny is not an acceptable response unless the party has complied with the provisions of Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(f).

(3) All documents and other record materials relied upon by a party moving for or opposing a motion for summary judgment shall be clearly identified for the court. Where appropriate, dates and specific page numbers shall be given.

Satisfaction may be evidenced by either:

(1) the filing of a satisfaction of judgment by the prevailing party, or

(2) the filing of a motion by the defendant requesting satisfaction of the judgment of record. A copy of the motion must be served upon the prevailing party who shall have ten (10) days within which to object. Otherwise, the clerk shall be authorized to mark the judgment paid and satisfied in full.

No pleadings or motions relating to the satisfaction of judgments shall be accepted for filing prior to the expiration of the time allowed for filing a bill of costs.

The administrator shall be responsible for fulfilling all obligations of the fund relating to tax procedures, including all necessary filings and payments of taxes. If, for any reason, the order establishing the fund does not designate or approve an administrator, the party depositing the fund shall be deemed to be administrator for the purposes of complying with the fund's tax obligations and requirements, including the filing of necessary returns and the payment of all taxes.

B. Receipt and Deposit of Registry Funds.

(1) Registry Administration Fee. The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts has established, pursuant to Judicial Conference authorization, a registry fee to be assessed for the administration of funds held in the registry of the court and placed in interest-bearing accounts or instruments.

The administrative fee assessed on a particular registry account shall be determined according to the fee schedule in effect at the time the account was opened or according to any amended fee schedule that is applicable to the account. The administrative fee is withdrawn from the income earned on the registry account at the time the account is closed for distribution. (2) Release to Trustee. The court may consider a consent motion by the parties to have funds which are deposited in the registry account released to a trustee for some alternative form of investment, which may be reasonably expected to produce a higher return of interest. At the direction of the court, the trustee may be required to post a fiduciary bond.

(3) Transfer of Funds to Registry. The court may, upon motion of the parties and/or in the discretion of the district judge, direct that registry funds on deposit in other banking institutions be transferred to the designated depository for investment in some form of interest-bearing account available under this rule.

(3) Payee Name. On all checks drawn by the clerk on deposits made into the registry of the court, the name of the payee shall be written as that name appears in the court's order providing for disbursement.

(4) Time of Disbursement. The clerk will issue disbursements as soon after receipt of the Order for Disbursement as the business of the clerk's office allows, except when it is necessary to allow time for a check or draft to clear or when an order is appealable, and the disbursement may not be made until the time for appeal has expired.

E. Disbursement of Monies Other than Registry Funds. Funds other than registry funds shall be disbursed by check drawn on the Treasury of the United States. ### C. Inspection and Copying of Exhibits.

(1) Sensitive Exhibits. Sensitive and special criminal evidence may not be inspected or copied without specific leave of the court. Such evidence includes, without limitation, narcotics, weapons, currency, exhibits of a pornographic nature, articles of high monetary value, exhibits depicting or describing a particularly brutal crime, exhibits in a highly publicized case, and any other evidence designated by the court as being sensitive.

(2) Sealed Exhibits. Exhibits ordered sealed or impounded by the court may not be inspected or copied by anyone, including attorneys for the parties, except upon leave of the court.

(3) Other Exhibits. Attorneys of record for any party may inspect or copy without specific leave of court all exhibits, other than those exhibits defined in (1) and (2) above, which have been admitted into evidence or rejected.

(4) Presence of Clerk Required. All inspections of exhibits of any type covered by this rule shall be conducted in the presence of the clerk or an authorized deputy clerk of this court. Inspections by attorneys for the parties are not excepted from this rule nor is application of this rule affected by whether the inspection is being made with or without leave of court.

D. Return of Exhibits.

(1) Generally. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the clerk shall retain possession of all exhibits and substitute exhibits (see also LR 16.4B(19)(a)) received or offered into evidence at trial or any hearing until after the time for appeal has expired or, in appealed cases, until entry of the appellate court's mandate. The introducing party or the party's attorney shall retain custody of sensitive exhibits, documentary exhibits larger than 8 ½" x 11", and exhibits other than documents, during these times, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(2) Reclamation and Disposition of Unclaimed Exhibits. Counsel shall reclaim all exhibits from the clerk of court within thirty (30) days following expiration of the applicable time period as stated in (1) above. Exhibits not removed in accordance with this Rule shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the clerk.

E. Availability of Exhibits for Inspection or Appeal. The filing party or the party's attorney shall grant a reasonable request of any party to examine an exhibit returned to the filing party's custody. Any exhibit in the custody of the filing party or the party's attorney shall, upon request, be returned immediately to the clerk. In the event transfer of oversized documentary exhibits or exhibits other than documents to the appellate court is required, the filing party or the party's attorney shall be responsible for arranging and paying for such transportation.

F. Chain of Custody. The filing party or the party's attorney shall be required to maintain a chain of custody for each returned exhibit during the time permitted for filing an appeal (see Fed.R.App.P. 4) and during the pendency of an appeal filed in compliance with Fed.R.App.P. 3.

G. Transcripts. The original transcripts of testimony and any record of proceedings filed with the clerk by an official court reporter or commissioner shall not be removed from the clerk's office by the parties or anyone acting on their behalf.

H. Appeal Records. LR 79.1E does not prohibit the forwarding of original records to the Court of Appeals in accordance with Fed.Rs.App.P. 10 and 11. Pursuant to the provisions of Rule 11(C) of those rules, the parties may request this court to retain the appeal record temporarily for use by the parties in preparing appellate papers.

I. Closed Files. Closed files of this court are forwarded to the Federal Records Center for this district, located in East Point, Georgia. Persons desiring use of any such files may, upon good cause shown on an appropriate form furnished by the clerk and payment of the prescribed fee, request that such files be returned for examination in the clerk's office. Alternatively, upon proper showing of good cause, the clerk may provide the requesting person the accession number(s) for the closed file(s), thereby facilitating review of the files at the Federal Records Center.

XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

LR 83: RULES BY DISTRICT COURTS

LR 83.1 ATTORNEYS: ADMISSION TO PRACTICE BEFORE THE COURT

A. Admission to the Bar of this Court.

(1) Eligibility. Any attorney who is an active member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia is eligible for admission to the bar of this court. Continued membership in this court's bar is contingent on the attorney's maintaining active status in good standing with the State Bar of Georgia.

(2) Admissions Procedure.

(a) The clerk shall arrange and schedule a ceremonial admissions day twice each year to admit those attorneys having recently passed the Georgia Bar Examination. The clerk will publish appropriate notice of the dates for the special admissions ceremonies and the instructions applicable thereto.

(b) Admission proceedings shall be regularly held in open court before a judge of this court as the first order of business on any Monday morning. Applicants for admission must complete and file with the clerk the petition for admission available in the clerk's office and must pay the prescribed enrollment fee.

The following oath shall be administered to each petitioner at the time of admission:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Government of the United States; that I will maintain the respect due to the courts of justice and judicial offices; that I will well and faithfully discharge my duties as an attorney and officer of this court; and that I will demean myself uprightly and according to the law and the recognized standards of ethics of the legal profession. So help me God."

(3) Attorneys for United States. Attorneys representing the United States government or any agency thereof who reside within this district are required to be admitted to this court's bar before they shall be permitted to practice before this court. Notwithstanding this rule and provided they are at all times members of the bar of some United States District Court, assistant United States attorneys and attorneys representing agencies of the government shall be given twelve (12) months from the date of their commission in which to take and pass the Georgia Bar examination. During this period, these attorneys shall be provisionally admitted to the bar of this court. The requirements of this rule do not apply to those government attorneys who are expressly exempted by statute from a local bar membership requirement or to judge advocates of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Air Force representing the United States in Magistrates Court.

B. Permission to Practice in a Particular Case.

(1) Eligibility and Procedure. A non-resident attorney who is not an active member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia, but who is a member in good standing of the bar of any United States court or of the highest court of any State may apply in writing for permission to appear pro hac vice.

Applications for admission pro hac vice may be obtained from the clerk. The applicant shall state under penalty of perjury the applicant's (1) residence address, (2) office address, telephone number and facsimile number, (3) the courts to which admitted to practice and the dates of admission, and (4) a statement that the applicant is in good standing and eligible to practice in all courts to which admitted. Applications for admission pro hac vice must be accompanied by payment of a prescribed admission fee. A non-resident attorney will not be permitted to appear until the applicant's application for admission pro hac vice has been signed by the district judge to whom the case is assigned or by the district judge's courtroom deputy, if so authorized by the district judge.

(2) Designation and Duties of Local Counsel. An attorney applying to appear pro hac vice must also designate a local member of the bar of this court with whom the opposing counsel and the court may readily communicate regarding the conduct of the case and upon whom papers shall be served. The designated local counsel must sign all pleadings and other papers filed in the case by the attorney appearing pro hac vice. The address, telephone number, facsimile number and written consent of the designated local counsel must be filed with the attorney's pro hac vice application.

If the non-resident attorney fails to respond to any order of the court for appearance or otherwise, the local attorney shall have the responsibility and full authority to act for and on behalf of the client in all proceedings in connection with the case, including hearings, pretrial conferences, and trial.

C. Standard of Professional Conduct. All lawyers practicing before this court shall be governed by and shall comply with the specific rules of practice adopted by this court and, unless otherwise provided, with the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct contained in the Rules and Regulations of the State Bar of Georgia and with the decisions of this court interpreting these rules and standards.

D. Appearances.

(1) In Civil Cases. An attorney's appearance as attorney of record for a party may be evidenced, for plaintiff, by signature on the complaint at filing and, for defendant, by signature on the answer to the complaint or on a Fed.R.Civ.P. 12(b) motion filed prior to answer. Any other attorney who signs a subsequent pleading or paper on behalf of a party must file a notice of appearance with the clerk.

An attorney whose appearance has not been previously noticed will not be permitted to represent a party at trial or in any other court proceeding until the attorney has filed a notice of appearance with the clerk. Failure to file a notice of appearance may result in the attorneys not receiving notices, orders, or other important communications from the court.

(2) Pro se Appearance Limitations. Whenever a party has appeared by attorney, the party may not thereafter appear or act in the party's own behalf in the action or proceeding or take any step therein unless the party has first given notice of the party's intention to the attorney of record and to the opposing party and has obtained an order of substitution from the court. Notwithstanding this rule, the court may in its discretion hear a party in open court even though the party has previously appeared or is represented by attorney.

(3) Duty to Supplement. Counsel and parties appearing pro se shall have, in all cases, an affirmative duty to notify the clerk's office by letter of any change in address and/or telephone number. A failure to keep the clerk's office so informed which causes a delay or otherwise adversely affects the management of a civil case shall constitute grounds for dismissal without prejudice or entry of a judgment by default.

E. Withdrawal.

(1) Withdrawal Policy. Counsel will not ordinarily be allowed to withdraw after pretrial or at a time when withdrawal will cause a delay in the trial of the case.

(2) Motions to Withdraw. This policy notwithstanding, an attorney wishing to withdraw the attorney's appearance in any action or proceeding or wishing to have the attorney's name stricken as attorney of record for a party in any case shall comply with the following procedure:

(a) Submit to the clerk in duplicate for filing a motion requesting permission to withdraw.

(b) The motion shall state that the attorney has given the client ten (10) days prior notice of the attorney's intention to request permission to withdraw and shall specify the manner of such notice. The notice shall be served upon the client, personally or at that client's last known address, and the notice shall contain at least the following information:

(A) That the attorney wishes to withdraw;

(B) The style of the action in which counsel seeks to withdraw, the name, address and telephone number of the Clerk and opposing counsel;

(C) That the Court retains jurisdiction of the action;

(D) That the client has the burden of keeping the court informed respecting where notices, pleadings or other papers may be served;

(E) That the client has the obligation to prepare for trial or hire other counsel to prepare for trial when the trial date has been set;

(F) That if the client fails or refuses to meet these burdens, the client may suffer adverse consequences, including, in criminal cases, bond forfeiture and arrest;

(G) The dates of any scheduled proceedings, including trial, and that holding of such proceedings will not be affected by the withdrawal of counsel;

(H) That service of notices may be made upon the client at the client's last known address, and,

(I) If the client is a corporation, that a corporation may only be represented in court by an attorney, that an attorney must sign all pleadings submitted to the court, and that a corporate officer may not represent the corporation in court unless that officer is also an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Georgia, and that failure to comply with this rule could result in a default being entered against the corporate party; and

(J) Unless the withdrawal is with the client's consent, the client's right to object within 10 days of the date of the notice. A copy of the notice shall be affixed to the motion.

(c) The attorney shall serve a copy of the attorney's motion to withdraw upon opposing counsel and upon the client after filing the motion with the clerk.

(d) Ten (10) days after filing, the clerk shall submit the motion to the district judge for action thereon.

Counsel wishing to withdraw from any civil action (except a class action) may be relieved from the requirement to file a motion to withdraw by filing a Certificate of Consent with the court that has been signed by the client, the withdrawing attorney, and the substituting attorney, if one has been selected by the client. If an attorney representing the United States or any agency thereof wishes to withdraw, it is not necessary that the client's signature appear on the Certificate of Consent, provided the client's consent is acknowledged by both the withdrawing and substituting attorney.

(3) Leave of Absence. All leaves of absence shall be subject to the approval of the court. Petitions for leave of absence for periods greater than twenty (20) days in length must be made by motion. Lead counsel must file a petition, in each individual case where an absence is requested, designating the period of absence and the reason for the absence. A proposed order for the court shall also be attached. Absence of less than twenty-one (21) days requires lead counsel to submit a letter to the district judge's courtroom deputy requesting that a case not be calendared during the period of absence. Only lead counsel, as specified on the preliminary statement and scheduling order, need petition the court for leave of absence. A leave of absence does not extend previously set filing deadlines nor relieve counsel from other deadline requirements imposed by the court.

(4) Responsibilities of Party Upon Removal of Attorney. Whenever an attorney withdraws or dies or is removed or suspended or for any other reason ceases to act as attorney of record, the party whom the attorney was representing must within twenty (20) days or before any further proceedings are had in the action before the court notify the clerk of the appointment of another attorney or of the party's decision to appear pro se. The party must also provide the clerk with the current telephone number and address of the newly-appointed attorney or of the party, if proceeding pro se. Failure to comply with this rule shall constitute a default by the party.

F. Attorney Discipline.

(1) Discipline by Other Courts; Criminal Convictions. Whenever it appears to the court that any member admitted to practice in this court generally under LR 83.1A or specially under LR 83.1B has been suspended or disbarred from the practice of law by the Supreme Court of Georgia or by any other court of competent jurisdiction or has been convicted of a felony or any crime involving moral turpitude in any court, such disbarment, suspension, or conviction shall operate as an automatic suspension of the attorney's right to practice in this court, and an order of suspension shall be issued by the court. An order of disbarment shall be issued thirty (30) days thereafter unless the attorney has by motion to the court shown good cause as to why the attorney should not be disbarred or that justice requires that disbarment not be imposed.

(2) Misconduct. Complaints of professional misconduct, including those referred by judges, shall be submitted to the court in writing and shall state with particularity the circumstances out of which the charges arose. Complaints submitted by counsel are subject to the strictures of Fed.R.Civ.P. 11. All other complaints of professional misconduct, except those submitted by judicial officers of this court, shall be under oath.

Upon receipt of a complaint regarding the professional conduct of an attorney in a proceeding before this court or when a complaint regarding an attorney's conduct in a proceeding in another court comes to the attention of this court, the district judge before whom the case is pending or to whom the alleged misconduct in another court has become known (or, in the district judge's discretion, the court) shall determine whether:

(a) the inquiry should be terminated because the question raised is unsupported or insubstantial;

(b) the alleged professional misconduct justifies further inquiry and, for members of the State Bar of Georgia, the matter should be referred to the State Disciplinary Board of the State Bar of Georgia for investigation and prosecution by that Board, if warranted;

(c) the alleged professional misconduct warrants consideration of prompt disciplinary action by this court regarding the attorney's right to practice before the court, and the matter should be referred to the court's Committee on Discipline for investigation, notwithstanding concurrent reference of the matter to the State Disciplinary Board of the State Bar of Georgia;

(d) the alleged professional misconduct of an attorney not a member of the State Bar of Georgia justifies further inquiry by the court and should be referred to a Committee on Discipline appointed by the court for investigation. Any attorney whose conduct in this court is under investigation by the Committee on Discipline shall not be specially admitted under LR 83.1B for participation in any other cases until the pending investigation is concluded.

Whenever a judge determines that action is appropriate under (b), (c), or (d), above, the court shall provide the attorney whose conduct is the subject of the complaint a copy of the written allegations against the attorney.

Nothing herein contained in this rule shall limit the right of an individual judge to manage the cases assigned to the district judge, which right shall include the authority to impose monetary penalties, to disqualify counsel from participation in a particular case, and to impose any other penalties or sanctions which may be appropriate in a particular case.

(3) Right to a Hearing. Except as provided in subsection (1) above, this court shall not impose any disciplinary action affecting an attorney's right to practice before the court until after a hearing on the matter has been held before the district judge to whom the case was assigned and upon a showing of good cause. The attorney may waive the right to a hearing. In those instances where the charge of misconduct was raised by a judge, the chief judge shall appoint another judge to hear the matter. At the hearing, the attorney whose conduct is the subject of the complaint shall be afforded an opportunity to appear in person and/or by counsel, to present oral and documentary evidence, to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents, to cross-examine witnesses, and to present argument orally or in writing. If not called by the attorney whose conduct is being investigated, the district judge has discretionary authority to call the complaining party to appear at the hearing. This rule shall not apply to sanctions, penalties, or other restrictions imposed by a judge which are applicable only to a particular case pending before the district judge.

(4) Sanctions. Discipline by this court may include disbarment, suspension from practice for a definite time, reprimand, or other discipline which the court deems proper. Referral of a complaint to the State Disciplinary Board of the State Bar of Georgia for investigation shall not constitute such discipline as to entitle the attorney to a hearing in this court on the propriety of the referral.

(5) Committee on Discipline. The court shall appoint a Committee on Discipline composed of five (5) members selected by the court from the Bar Council for the Northern District of Georgia. No committee member shall serve for more than three (3) years. The committee shall at all times have at least two (2) members from divisions other than the Atlanta division.

The committee shall have the power to investigate all charges of professional misconduct referred to it by the court. At the request of the committee, the clerk shall issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum as may be required by the investigation.

The committee shall at the close of the investigation make a written report to the court stating the discipline or other action recommended by the committee. All disciplinary proceedings shall be in-camera unless the court shall direct otherwise. A copy of the rules governing the committee's procedures is attached as Appendix G.

(6) Contempt of Court. Disciplinary proceedings under this Rule shall not affect or be affected by any proceeding for contempt under Title 18 of the United States Code or under Fed.R.Crim.P. 42.

(7) Unauthorized Practice. Any person who before admission to the bar of this court or who while disbarred or suspended from the bar of this court exercises any of the privileges bestowed upon members of this bar or who pretends to be entitled to such privileges shall be guilty of contempt of this court and shall be subject to punishment therefor and shall be subject to any other discipline which the court may impose.

(8) Reinstatement. Persons disbarred from practice before this court may not petition for reinstatement within three (3) years following disbarment or within two (2) years following an adverse decision upon a previous petition for reinstatement. Persons suspended indefinitely must satisfy all conditions to reinstatement imposed by the court at the time of suspension.

Procedure for Petitioning to Stay. A petitioner seeking a stay of enforcement of a state court judgment or order shall attach to the petition a copy of all state court opinions and judgments relating to the matter. The petitioner shall also state whether or not petitioner has previously petitioned this court or any other federal court for relief arising out of this same matter. The reasons for denying relief given by a court that has considered the matter shall be attached to the petition. If the court did not issue a written order stating its reasons for denying relief, a copy of all relevant portions of the transcript shall be attached to the petition. If petitioner raises an issue which was either not raised or not fully exhausted in state court, petitioner shall state the reasons why such action was not taken.

B. Successive Petitions. A second or successive petition for habeas corpus may be dismissed if the court finds:

- (1) that the petition fails to allege new or different grounds for relief, or
- (2) that the failure of the petitioner to assert those grounds in a prior petition constitutes an abuse of the writ, or
- (3) that the petition is frivolous and entirely without merit.

Second or successive petitions not dismissed on one of the above-stated grounds shall be given expedited consideration by the court.

LR 83.4 RESTRICTIONS ON MEDIA AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION

A. Television and Radio Broadcasting, Tape Recording, or Photographing Judicial Proceedings. The taking of photographs and operation of tape recorders in the courthouse and radio or television broadcasting from the courthouse during the progress of or in connection with judicial proceedings, including proceedings before a United States Magistrate Judge, whether or not court is actually in session, is prohibited. A judicial officer may, however, permit (1) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence or the perpetuation of a record, and (2) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investiture, ceremonial, or naturalization proceedings.

To facilitate the enforcement of this rule, no photographic, broadcasting, sound or recording equipment other than the recording equipment of the United States magistrate judges and the official court reporters, will be permitted to be operated on the floors of the courthouse occupied by the court, except as otherwise permitted by order of the judicial officer before whom the particular case or proceeding is pending.

Portable computers, cellular telephones, pagers and personal communication devices may be transported onto floors occupied by the court; however, these devices shall not be operated in any courtroom or hearing room nor shall they be operated in any public area where their operation is disruptive of any court proceeding unless otherwise permitted by order of the court.

All electronic photographic, broadcasting, sound or recording equipment brought into the courthouses shall be subject to inspection by the United States Marshals' Service.

B. Provisions for Special Orders in Widely Publicized or Sensational Civil

Cases. In a widely publicized or sensational civil case, the court, on motion of either party or on its own motion, may issue a special order governing such matters as extra-judicial statements by parties and witnesses likely to interfere with the rights of the parties or the rights of the accused to a fair trial by an impartial jury; the seating and conduct in the courtroom of spectators and news media representatives; the management and sequestration of jurors and witnesses; and any other matters which the court may deem appropriate for inclusion in such an order.

LR 83.5 WEAPONS NOT ALLOWED IN COURTHOUSE

(1) The United States Marshal and his duly assigned deputy marshals, court security officers and other security personnel engaged by the U.S. Marshal.

(2) Federal Protective Service officers on assignment or upon call.

(3) Any federal law enforcement officer presenting a prisoner before a magistrate judge for initial appearance.

(4) Other federal law enforcement officials whose permanent assignment offices are located within the security parameters of the various courthouses; provided, however, that this exclusion does not allow these officials to carry weapons to the facilities of the United States District Court, including, but not limited to judges' chambers, offices and courtrooms.

(5) United States Probation Officers are authorized to wear or carry firearms to and from their offices within the district's courthouses, but probation officers are not authorized to wear firearms inside their offices. Firearms brought to the probation office will be secured in a locked container.
